- The Elroy-Sparta State Trail: America's First Rails-to-Trails Project
 - This is the granddaddy of them all! The Elroy-Sparta Trail was the first rails-to-trails conversion in the country, and it is perennially one of the most popular bicycling destinations in the state.
- Fishing The Driftless Area Rivers
 - The Driftless Area is known for superior trout fishing, including numerous rivers surrounding Hillsboro.
- Wildcat Mountain State Park
 - About 20 miles from the City of Hillsboro, Wildcat Mountain State Park offers hiking trails with spectacular views. Canoe the Kickapoo River in your own canoe or rent one in Ontario, WI.
- Wisconsin's Route 33 - The Little Deals Gap of the Mid-west!
 - On this road/route you'll see some of the most beautiful farms in Wisconsin. It will take you through Amish country and a short run in a state park that will remind you a little of Deals Gap.
